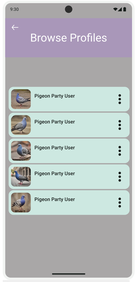
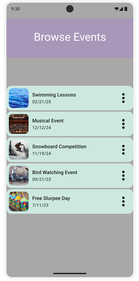
This is the menu for Administrator Actions. Tapping any of these buttons takes the user to the respective page where they can manage profiles, events, images, hash data, and facilities.



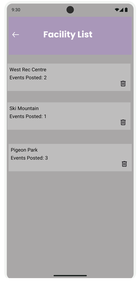
This page is a list of profiles that the admin can scroll through. Tapping on the three dots of any of the profiles displays a dialogue for deletion.



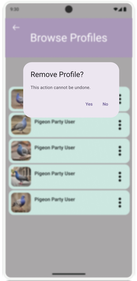
This page is a list of events that the admin can scroll through. Tapping on the three dots of any of the events displays a dialogue for deletion.

This page is a list of images that the admin can scroll through. Tapping on the three dots of any of the images displays a dialogue for deletion.

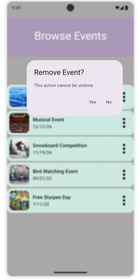
This page is a list of hash data that the admin can scroll through. Tapping on the three dots of any of the hash data displays a dialogue for deletion.



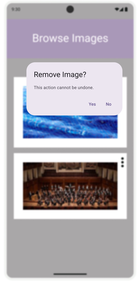
This page is a list of facilities that the admin can scroll through. Tapping on the three dots of any of the facilities displays a dialogue for deletion.



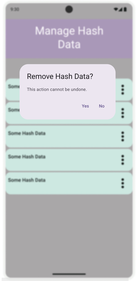
This page appears when the admin tapt the three dots on any of the profiles. Selecting "Yes" will remove the respective profile.



This page appears when the admin tapt the three dots on any of the events. Selecting "Yes" will remove the respective event.



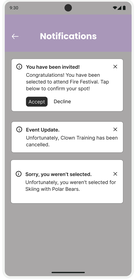
This page appears when the admin tapt the three dots on any of the images. Selecting "Yes" will remove the respective image.



This page appears when the admin tapt the three dots on any of the hash data. Selecting "Yes" will remove the respective hash data.

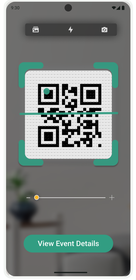
This page appears when the admin tapt the three dots on any of the facilities. Selecting "Yes" will remove the respective facility.

This is main page for the entrant. This page shows a list of their events.



This is the notification page for entrants. It will contain a list of notifications which will be intractable.

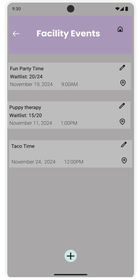
This is the entrants profile page where they can view and update if they choose.



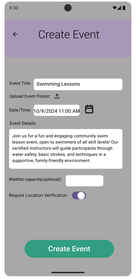
This page will access the camera to scan a QR code.

This is the main event details page. The "sign-up" button will be changed depending on the entrants status with the event.

This allows for the Organizer to input a facility name, address and a picture, then finally create the facility



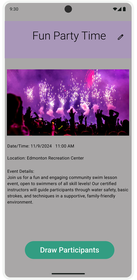
This represents the list of facility events by the Organizer. They may edit current events, see their location or view the event details.



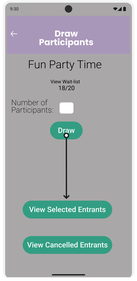
When an Organizer hits the "+" button for a new event, they can add all details and move it to the list.

This screen takes place after an Organizer creates a event. They are meant to share the given QR code with participants

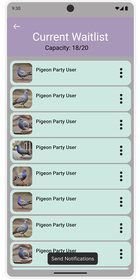
This screen shows a map of the entrants who are participating in an event.



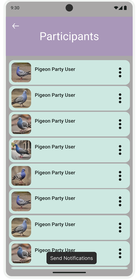
The details of an event by an organizer show it's relevant info and prompt them to draw guests.



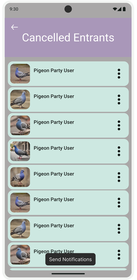
For drawing participants, the organizer can select how many they wish to choose, alongside who has been chose and who has cancelled.



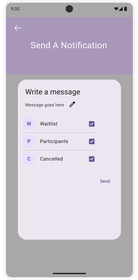
This screen shows the list of entrants who are on the wait list. The organizer may send them a notification.



This screen shows the list of entrants who are participating. The organizer may send them a notification.



This screen shows the list of entrants who have cancelled. The organizer may send them a notification.



This screen allows for an Organizer to send a notification to the chosen Entrant type (wait-listed, participating, cancelled).